

The Blue Danube

Johann Strauss II

Moderato

Piano

mp

The image displays a piano accompaniment for the waltz 'The Blue Danube' by Johann Strauss II. The score is written in 3/4 time and consists of four systems of music. Each system includes a treble clef staff and a bass clef staff, both with a brace on the left. The tempo is marked 'Moderato' and the dynamics are 'mp' (mezzo-piano). The piece features a repeating melodic motif in the treble clef, often spanning across bar lines with a slur. The bass clef provides a harmonic accompaniment with chords and moving lines. Fingerings are indicated by numbers 1-5 above or below notes. Some notes are circled, and some chords are marked with numbers like 5/3, 3/1, 4/1, and 5/1. The word 'Piano' is written vertically on the left side of the first system.

The Blue Danube, p.2

The first system of musical notation consists of two staves. The upper staff is in treble clef and contains a melodic line with a slur over the first four measures. The lower staff is in bass clef and contains a bass line with a slur over the first four measures. Fingerings are indicated above the notes: '5 1' above the fifth note of the first measure, and '2 1' above the first and second notes of the second measure.

The second system of musical notation consists of two staves. The upper staff has a slur over the first four measures, with a circled '1' above the final note. The lower staff has a slur over the first four measures. A dynamic marking 'f' is placed at the end of the system. Fingerings are indicated above the notes: '5 3' above the fifth note of the first measure, and '3 1' above the first and second notes of the second measure.

The third system of musical notation consists of two staves. The upper staff has a slur over the first four measures, with a circled '2' above the second measure and a '1' above the first note of the third measure. The lower staff has a slur over the first four measures.

The fourth system of musical notation consists of two staves. The upper staff has a slur over the first four measures, with a circled '5' above the first note. The lower staff has a slur over the first four measures.
